

Learning to Long for God Alone

Lesson #9: "Willing to Obey"

□ Read Chapter Nine and answer the following questions from pages 140-154.

Ps	alms 40:8 "I delight to do	Your will, O my God, And Your la	w is within my heart.'	,
1.	Why does man never cho	ose what is right and holy?
2.	Why does our will not fu	nction as God has created it?
3.		according to our overriding
	because of its"	bent, our will is more strongly	to sin	than to
4.		worshipping idols or completely de	evoted to the one true	God?
5.	"Don't be	into thinking that you	to develop	willpower.
	We need to develop	thoughts and	.,,
6.	How do our choices beco	ome second nature?
7.	Why are we responsible:	for unconscious sins?

8.	Are we born with a 'neutral will'?
9.	Why can't unbelievers understand the truth or desire to obey it?
10.	. Why is a believer able to choose to sin or not to sin?
11.	. How do we avoid idols and please God if strengthening our willpower does not work?
12.	. Why can't believers not once and for all flee sins and live the way God would have us to?
13.	. Why do we not consistently choose God and His ways?
14.	. How does God work the change in our hearts and lives?
15.	. What is our duty in our sanctification?
	note : "If we believe anything other than God's sovereign rule over our hearts, then we are left without pe for change."